

SUPERVISION REFLECTION GUIDE

Master of Arts in Ministry – Saint John's Seminary

Rev. Edward M. Riley, Director of Pastoral Formation

Phone: 617-746-5425

Due: Monthly by the student via email by the end of each month
(Oct., Nov., Dec., Feb., Mar., and Apr.) to:

E-mail: ellen.oesterle@sjs.edu (MAM/MTS Assistant to the Director)

(In completing this Guide please note that it is not meant to be a word for word report or an exhaustive description of the many elements of the event. It is simply a starting point for discussion. It is most helpful to give the completed guide to your supervisor ahead of time so that it may be read before you sit to discuss it together.)

A. Why

Why are you presenting this incident? For example, "I am presenting this incident because..." or "This incident is significant to me because..." You might include how the supervisor can help you.

B. The Event

Facts - Briefly describe the event.

Feelings – How did you feel before, during, and after the event?

Interpretation – Upon reflection and prayer, how do you understand/see the situation?
How do you think others understand/see it?

Options – What were (and/or) are your alternatives for dealing with the event?
What are the significant issues present?

Action – What will you do now?

C. The Learning

Spiritual – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my relationship with God?
About my ability to share my faith-life with others or have the faith of others teach me?

Intrapersonal – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my priorities, needs, biases, hopes, fears, desires, insecurities and interior disposition?

Interpersonal – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my communication style and my interaction patterns with other people?

Theological – What does this event/issue reveal to me about my understanding and application of the teaching and theology of the Church? What Church teaching, Tradition, or experience have I used to inform my actions in this event and since?
